

HADRIANIC SOCIETY

ROMAN ARMY SCHOOL 2015

The Hadrianic Society's Roman Army School is a residential course which will take place at St Chad's College in Durham between Saturday 28th and Tuesday 31st March 2015. This year the theme will be

The Role of Towers and Fortlets in the Operation of the Frontiers of the North-Western Provinces of the Roman Empire

Towers and fortlets are two of the most important elements in the portfolio of military installations available to the Roman Army.

The Roman Army School in Durham will bring together specialists from the north-western provinces of the empire, to explore the development and role of these structures and their changing use over time.

The School will include an optional visit to Hadrian's Wall to examine surviving towers and fortlets.

- Speakers will include Erik Graafstal from Utrecht, Andreas Thiel from Germany, Lindsay Allason-Jones, Matthew Symonds, Adrian Goldsworthy and David Breeze.

Further information and booking forms are available on our website www.hadrianicsociety.com, from bookings@hadrianicsociety.com or from Helen Gawthrop, 3 St Albans Mews, Nottingham NG6 9JH